

1. DEFINITIONS

- 1.1 Assessment is the ongoing process of gathering, analysing and reflecting on evidence to make informed and consistent judgments to improve future student learning.
- 1.2 Reporting is the formal process of informing what learning has occurred.
- 1.3 The Victorian Curriculum F–10 sets out what every student should learn during their first eleven years of schooling. The curriculum is the common set of knowledge and skills required by students for life-long learning, social development and active and informed citizenship.
- 1.4 PAT- Progressive Achievement Tests

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 To collect multiple sources of data to validate student progress and achievement.
- 2.2 To provide students with ongoing feedback on their achievements to assist personal goal setting for future learning.
- 2.3 Assessment for improved student learning and deep understanding requires a triangulation of data that comes from three different sources:
 - Assessment FOR learning data is collected in an ongoing way (conferences, running records, pre/post-test, work samples, quizzes, photos, common assessment tasks and moderated work samples) to inform future teaching.
 - Assessment AS learning data is collected when students reflect on their progress and co-construct their future learning goals with their teacher.
 - Assessment OF learning data is collected when teachers use formal assessments to make judgments on student achievement against goals and standards.

3. GUIDELINES

- 3.1 Assessment is an integral component of the teaching process.
- 3.2 Assessment involves a series of linked activities undertaken over time for deep understanding, so that progress is monitored towards the intended achievement standards.
- 3.3 Assessment allows students to receive feedback on their learning and performance, so assessment serves as a developmental activity aimed at improving student learning.
- 3.4 The teaching and learning programs include a variety of assessments for students to demonstrate what they have learned.
- 3.5 Student self-assessment is integral to the process of authentic assessment.
